

First Authoritive Showing of The New Models for Spring

If you are interested in knowing just what's the newest and most popular STYLES for SPRING ARE, you should inspect our lines of

Suits and Top Coats for Men and Young Men

Suits--$10. to $20.--Top Coats

EVERY GARMENT bearing the Trade-Marks of the lines we handle are absolutely guaranteed, not only in quality, but have a STYLE AND FIT not found in other lines of Ready-to-Wear Garments.

THE MODELS are the same as we are producing in our CUSTOM MADE department, and the COLORING AND STYLE OF THE CLOTH follow closely the highest priced Imported Goods.

"TAKE A LOOK" at our windows and get next,-----it's authorative.

F. BLASIUS & SON

"TAKE A LOOK" at our windows and get next,-----it's authorative.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Wall paper at Cases.

Mr. Joe Ucker was a visitor to Columbus, Sunday.

The newest thing in wall paper, at Bort & Co.

Mr. Bert Haas of Orland, was in Logan, Saturday.

Look for the large barber pole, Eberst & Brandt.

Charles King, of Kachelmacher, was in Logan, Wednesday.

The best varnish stains are sold by Bort & Co.

Mr. John Schwarz, of Buchtel, was in Logan today.

Meet me at Eberst & Brandt's barber shop, Saturday.

Mr. John Till, of Junction City, spent Sunday in Logan.

Best line of 10c wall paper are sold, by Bort & Co.

Mrs. Minnie Arnold Wilson of Norwalk, was in Logan today.

The best paints made sold by Bort & Co.

Mrs. A. M. Sparks was a Logan visitor Monday and Tuesday.

Lagoon brings that good appetite, 35c per bottle, at Bort & Co.

Miss Emma Kinkade of Orbiston, was a shopper in Logan, today.

The Bell Telephone Co. are putting in a fire alarm at the engine house.

Pretty designs, pretty shades and good quality of wall paper at Case's.

Mr. Wash Wyman, of Lancaster, was a visitor in Logan, Friday.

The line of wall paper at Case's drug store, this year is exceptionally fine.

Mr. Clarence Guess of Green-dale, was a visitor in Logan, Saturday.

FOR SALE—Oliver typewriter in good condition. Address P. O. Box 173.

Mr. Noah Nunemaker, of Columbus, was a visitor to this city, Saturday.

Eberst & Brandt the barbers.

Mr. Will Nunemaker spent Sunday with J. P. Nunemaker and family at Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Burberry, of Columbus, spent Sunday with relatives in Logan.

Mr. W. H. Woltz and son Harry, of Rockbridge, are in town today on business.

The best paint and white wash brushes, are sold by Bort and Co.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jurgensmier on Thursday of last week, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Sain of Marietta, were visiting friends and relatives in Logan last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kitchen, of So. Bloomingville, Route 1, were in Logan, Wednesday.

Mrs. Lawrence Yerges went to Straitsville, Tuesday, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Curran.

The big wall paper sale is now on, at Bort & Co.

Mrs. Mary Voris, of Athens, is spending a few days in Logan, the guest of relatives and friends.

At the store of F. S. Case may be purchased the reliable garden seed that you are looking for.

Mr. Dick Breen, of Chicago, was a visitor at the home of his brother Charles, last Saturday.

GIRL WANTED—To do general house work in small family. Call on Mrs. F. S. Case, Logan.

At Case's drug store are on sale now the best garden seed in Logan. They are such as you may count on.

Doctor Wood of Logan, was appointed a trustee of the Athens Hospital by Governor Harris, Tuesday.

Mr. John Unger, of So. Bloomingville, was in Logan last Saturday, and made this office a substantial call.

M. J. C. Bainter, of So. Bloomingville, was a visitor to Logan, Saturday, and a pleasant caller at our office.

Mr. Leo Recktenwaldt, who has been employed at Ashville, Ohio, for some time, returned to Logan last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dupler, of New Lexington, spent Monday in Logan, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Dupler.

Reliable garden seed at Case's.

Miss Golden Harden and Miss Edith Waller were the over-Sunday guests of Miss Lottie Harden, of New Plymouth.

Ask to see our line of wall paper. They are beautiful this year, and of most durable quality and shade. Case's Drug Store.

Messrs. Charles and Ed Beck and sister Mary, are at Shawnee today, attending the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. John Staley.

Some of the handsomest and most permanent shades of wall paper are on sale at Case's Drug Store, that were brought to Logan.

Mr. J. F. Druckemiller, of Columbus, District Superintendent of the Bell Telephone Co., was a business visitor to Logan, Tuesday.

Mr. John C. Brannon, of Columbus, was in Logan the first of the week, superintending some repairs to his property in West Logan.

Mrs. D. Steele and niece, Miss Mamie Burkett, of McArthur, spent part of Monday and Tuesday with her cousin, Mrs. W. P. Heft.

Postmaster John F. White received his commission, Wednesday and will assume the duties of the office on Wednesday of next week.

Mr. W. A. Harned, of New Plymouth, was a visitor to Logan last Saturday. He left an order for the DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL sent to his address.

Mrs. Johnny Hudson, and Mrs. Lafe McMorrow on Tuesday attended the funeral of a friend, Mrs. Robt. Curran, of New Straitsville.

Editor G. W. C. Perry, of the Chillicothe Gazette, made us a call convention day and brought with him his brass band. Much obliged, old scout.

There will be a public sale at the residence of Noah Mathias, one-half mile west of Pine Grove, on Tuesday, March 31, 1908. Sale to begin at 10 a. m.

April 6, Logan will again be visited by that prince of comedians, W. B. Patton, in his wonderful comedy-drama, "The Slow Poke." Seats will go on sale for this attraction Wednesday, April 1.

Auditor J. L. Martin returned Saturday, from a week's stay at Vinton, Ohio, where he was putting some repairs on his farm and house recently purchased.

The new ambulance of the Cherrington Hospital is certainly a credit to our town. Its appearance on our streets is quite like a city—and we are a city.

When you go to the trouble of preparing a garden, you want to be sure that the seed you plant will come up, and mature well. Case's garden seed are reliable.

Messrs. Geo. Woltz and Samuel Kline, of Rockbridge, were visitors to Logan last Saturday. Both renewed their subscription to the DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL for another year.

Ida L. Gent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gent, was married to Charles Underwood, of Columbus, March 22nd, by Rev. King at his residence on West Broad street.

You are cordially invited to attend the Mission in the Episcopal Church every night next week, commencing Monday evening, March 29th, to the following Sunday evening.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new remedy, and improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. Bort & Co.

Dr. J. H. Long, Osteopath, of Lancaster will be at Hotel A. M. on Tuesday and Friday afternoon of each week. Examination and consultation without charge. 3 12, tf.

FOR SALE—House and lot on east Main street. Four room cottage, and large lot. Will sell for $1500.00. Two nice porches, and house piped for gas. Also two lots in Glenova for sale. Inquire at this office.

Mr. Wm. Waner, proprietor of the Crystal Springs Ice Plant, Logan, has made some marked improvements on the plant this month. He installed a new 100 horse power boiler, and did away with the compressor system and put in a new outfit of the absorbing system. He has increased his plant from a five ton per day capacity to an eight ton, and will be able to take care of his increasing business this summer in good shape.

DECEASED: It's what you can do all the time with Gold Medal Flour that counts. Try it. ANGELA.

On Friday, March 20, there came to Dr. and Mrs. Ellison a large boy, and the dentist papa can not practice on him for he has no teeth. They call the new boy James Francis for the grand-dads. All are getting along well.

Mr. Stanley Robinson, representing Jones, Witter & Co., Columbus, who makes a weekly visit to Logan, and has many friends hereabouts, has recently purchased a handsome country home in Worthington. He is having some improvements added to his new home.

A bunch of youngsters of Rockbridge, were brought before Squire Lappen last week for jumping trains and given gentle reminders that they should keep off of trains. One young man by the name of Heft was taken before Judge Martin and given a suspended reformatory sentence for shooting at a train.

The date for Opie Read has been changed to Friday, April 10, but the seats will go on sale on Saturday, March 28, as heretofore announced, in order to accommodate the heavy demand for seats to this, the only opportunity Logan will have of hearing one of the greatest entertainers before the public.

We are sorry to learn of the serious sickness of the sweet little babe, Margaret, of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Williamson. It is suffering with pneumonia, with a struggle for its life. The child is a general favorite around the court house and the DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL office, and its serious sickness is of personal concern to us all. We do most sincerely hope the little one will pull through, and we extend our sympathy to the young parents and to Sheriff and Mrs. Williamson.

Land for Sale

The 12 acre farm of Jacob Jewartz north of Logan 3 miles. Two room house, barn and out buildings. Good young, bearing orchard. For particulars call at this office or address J. M. Schwartz, Buchtel, Ohio. March 26, 3-wks.

RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS

Geo. Kraus, operator at Pomeroy, spent Friday in Logan.

M. A. Kraus went to Nelsonville last Friday night to visit his family.

Benjamin Swartz, 3rd trick dispatcher, was a Logan visitor last Saturday.

Work train was furnished River division last Saturday to unload stone at trestle 113 at Hawks.

W. Michel, engineer on M. of W. department, was a Logan visitor last Tuesday.

Operator H. A. Connor spent last Thursday and Friday in Orland visiting relatives.

C. G. Ament, agent at Lancaster, came to Logan with the remains of his father last Tuesday.

L. J. Quinn, superintendent of Hocking division and branches, went to Haydenville last Tuesday.

Ed. Foresythe, cashier at Lancaster, came to Logan last Tuesday with the funeral party of Mr. Ament.

T. M. Connors was in Logan last Tuesday. Mr. Connors is superintendent of K. & M. at Charleston.

C. E. Stroth, brakeman on 428 and 133, laid off a few days last week. Brakeman M. A. Kraus filled his place.

Bert (Red) Wilson ran the special from Dundas to Logan last Thursday, and returned to Dundas.

Night Yard Conductor J. J. Bowens laid off last Thursday and Friday nights. Ex-conductor Buck Poling filled his official place. Mr. Bowens made a business trip to Columbus.

Engine 80 was kept at Logan, from its initial trip on pay car, to haul special from Dundas to Logan and return. This engine is used for extra passenger work on Hocking and Toledo division, but owing to no extra passenger engine at Logan were compelled to use the 80.

PROBATE COURT NEWS

Second partial account of B. S. Sweazy, guardian of Eddie Williams, minor, heard and approved. Record ordered.

First final account of Henry Hansel, administrator of will annexed of estate of Lewis Coakley, heard and estate being fully settled, administrator is discharged.

Application filed for the appointment of a guardian of Thomas McLin, minor child of Sarah F. McLin, late of Washington township, deceased. Bond ordered and letters issued to Simeon Rutter, guardian.

Application filed for an administrator of the estate of Sarah E. McLin, deceased, made to W. J. McLin. Bond ordered, letters issued.

Application made for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Hannah Riley, by Levi Gardner, and declaration of next of kin filed in his favor. Bond ordered in the sum of $900. Bond filed and approved, letters issued.

Instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Allison Collison, late of Washington township, presented for probate by Elizabeth E. Collison. Notice to heirs ordered and matter set for hearing April 1st.

Final account filed March 23, by Mary C. Iles and Otto Iles, executors of the estate of Wm. Iles, deceased. Same for hearing April 24.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

John W. Byron of Washington C. H., and Hazel Mathias of Rockbridge.

Howard Roden of Ironton, and Lottie Wines of Middlefork.

Frank Emerick and Julia Hite, both of Gore.

Mrs. Catharine Higgy.

The mother of Mr. O. T. Higgy, of Logan, died at her home in Grove City, Tuesday morning, at the age of 72 years. Mr. and Mrs. Higgy were called to the bed side.

GEORGIANA: I don't like your cook book—it doesn't recommend Gold Medal Flour. —MAGGIE.